WINTER SPORTS CARNIVAL STARTS SATURDAY; STATE COLLEGES MEET

Competition Furnished In Several Events

Students Free

Bolich, Kincaid To Box; Wrestlers Enter

By FRANK BONANNO

The first annual Winter Sports Carnival in the history of San Jose State college arranged by the California Collegiate Athletic Association will convene here tomorrow bringing together athletic representatives from Santa Barbara, San Diego, Fresno, and San Jose, on Saturday morning and night on the Spartan campus.

Competition will be furnished in boxing, wrestling, badminton, fencing, and gymnastics. The carnival, which will probably become an annual affair, corresponds to the basketball tournament held last December, according to Gil Bishop, graduate manager.

At the present time the San Jose officials hope to promote a spring carnival to include swimming, tennis, golf, and track for the coming quarter.

Activities will get underway at 10 a.m. on Saturday morning and will go on all day, concluding the galaxy of star events with the boxing and wrestling bouts in the large gym around 11 o'clock. According to Gil Bishop, in charge of the entire show, outsiders will be charged at both morning and evening.

Due to the fact that members of the Spartan Daily staff must take a few finals next week, there will only be two issues of the paper, Monday and Wednesday.

All organizations should remember this and act accordingly. The deadlines are today at three o'clock and Tuesday at the same time.

Green Dress To Dominate At Irish Party

"All men and women students attending the 'Wearing of the Green' party tomorrow night at the city YWCA should wear a complete or part green costume," announced members of the committee for the joint YW and YM social activities group.

Harill Johnson, general chairman for the St. Patrick's party, has planned a full evening of entertainment, games, dancing, and refreshments centering around this day set aside for the "Wearing of the Green".

Special Rate Effective Only If 500 Register

Yesterday afternoon the Controller's office announced that only 66 tickets to San Jose State Day at the Golden Gate International Exposition had been signed up for by San Jose State students.

Hearing of this fact, Chairman Ed Haworth stated that the 500 tickets absolutely must be signed for by next Friday afternoon at five o'clock or the special rate will not go into effect. If over 1000 sign up the rate will be even further reduced to 40 cents per ticket.

Mr. Haworth stated that tickets do not necessarily have to be sold to students or faculty. If students or teachers have friends who plan on attending on April 1, they should indicate the fact when signing, as anyone may buy tickets through the school. "Students should realize the saving they are making on this special trip," student chairman John Holtorf stated yesterday. "The entire journey and entrance to the Fair can be made for the price that ordinarily is effective for the train ride alone."

A Capella Choir Orchesis On Island Program

Three big events have been scheduled for San Jose State Day on San Francisco's Treasure Island, Saturday, April 1, according to the announcement made yesterday by Chairman Ed Haworth.

In the afternoon, the 60-member San Jose State A Capella Choir, with William Erlendson directing, will sing from the stage of the Festival Hall of the Foods and Beverage building.

Six Cases OF DIPHTHERIA Disclosed

Flash from the Health office:

If you have a sore throat, there's a strong possibility that it may be the beginning of diphtheria, according to Miss Margaret Twombly, head of the Health department.

All students who have any indications of a sore throat should report at once to the Health office, or if it is during spring vacation a physician should be consulted.

So far six cases of the disease have been discovered on the campus, five from one house and one who has been in contact with the others.

"We're pretty sure we've checked all sources of the disease," Miss Twombly said, "but we want to take the necessary precautions."

Chilled Full House Sees 'Night Must Fall'; Runs Twice More

"Night Must Fall", the all-alumni cast mystery-thriller, opened last night in the college Little Theater, to start its three-day run before a chilled but approving full-house audience.

Second and third performances will be given tonight and tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock.

FINEST CAST

With easily the finest cast town and college playgoers will see this year, "Night Must Fall" saw instructors Miss Margaret Douglas and James Clancy and the former San Jose Players star, Dorothy Leverenz, return to the stage in the featured roles.

Under Speech Head Mr. Hugh Gillis' direction, Miss Douglas appeared in the role of the silly old woman Mrs. Bramson, who though she can walk perfectly, keeps herself confined to a wheel chair. She falls for the psychopathic case "Danny", played by Mr. James Clancy, who carries a head in a box throughout the play. His principle mission in life is the decapitating of old women.

Also not quite normal is "Olivia", played by Dorothy Leverenz, who is fascinated by the boy and somewhat of a psychopathic case herself. The two never do quite meet—just pass each other, leaving both broken-up emotionally.

OTHER ROLES

Other roles prominent in the play are taken by Don Hascall, who got up from a sick bed to play the inspector; Mr. William Sweeney as Hubert; Florence Murdock as the nurse; Lavelle Smith, the maid; Carol Murdock, the

MODERN DANCE

By MARY TRAUB

Orchesis, honorary dance society, will present its annual spring program on Wednesday evening, April 19. More than 12 numbers, solo and group, are being prepared for the performance to be given in the Little Theater.

In the various dances the audience can watch moods of joy, grief, power, and defiance transferred into movement. It can feel the surge of a particular underlying theme. Around this dominating theme centers the interest and appeal of each of the numbers.

Contrast among the various types is emphasized. The opening dance, a lively, precise dance of greeting, is in direct contrast to the studied, sustained movement of the Cycle, the feature of the last half of the program.

The Cycle, which consists of "a series of dances related to one another by an affinity of rhythmic structure", allows much chance for dramatization. It is capable of achieving great scope of interest.

A comical portion of the program is the satire on the Exposition. Every person participating in this dance has her particular part to play. Each carries on her own individual movement and is necessary for the desired effect.

Based on nursery rhymes are two dances, a bouree, and a pavonne. One lively and airy, the other is steady in classic dignity.

A dreamy, sleepy quality is captured in a waltz. Emphasizing smoothness of movement, the dance is composed to a steady tempo.

Defiance is the keynote of a dance entitled "Revolt". Power, strength, and determination are qualities brought out through rhythmic movement.

Costumes will do their share towards achieving a particular effect in each number. The novelty in their styles will be equal to the variety of movements in the dances. Loose circular skirts reminiscent of fading sunlight and summer will be used in the waltz. Heavy costumes representing dignity and restraint will be used in the pavonne by the ladies of the court.

Stripes will be used to get over a comic effect in the opening number.

We Gotta Do
Something
About Yells

By CON LACY

We gotta do something about this organized cheering section business.

Recently I was sitting in the State cheering section at one of the basketball games, when I noticed a good looking girl sitting next to me.

During the game we started exchanging viewpoints on the players and as the game progressed our talk progressed beyond the stage of basketball.

Eventually I asked if I could take her home. I could.

She asked me what course I was taking in college and then I asked her what she was majoring in.

"Oh, I don't go here," she replied. Then your a high school girl," I queried suspiciously?

When she answered in the negative I breathed easier and said, "Well, then you're out of school."

"Certainly not, she said primly, I go to Roosevelt junior high."

NOTICES

Schedule of Orchesis practices for today is as follows: 4:00-6:00, Cycle. This is the final date for selection groups. Every member must attend.—M. Lucas.

The Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music society, will present a one-hour concert Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. in the Little Theater. It is their first public appearance and everyone is invited to attend.

Two reels of sound pictures describing the Naval Training Program at Pensacola, Florida, will be presented today at 11 o'clock in Room 111 for men students interested in such work.

CAMPUS
GAYWAY

By PATTY BLACKWOOD

A clatter of hoofs, a cloud of dust, and a hearty HI HO SILVER echoed across the floor of the Men's gym last Friday nite at the last student body dance of the quarter, when Staters broke through the gates of the corral for the evening to enjoy a few hours' revelry and fun before putting their noses to the grindstone to sharpen up wits for finals.

THE barnyard came to town, as well as Spaniards, cowboys, and everything else in the form of costumes. (Of course there are always a few non-conformists, too). Someone said Jim Bailey was even shooting off fire crackers. VEGETABLE and SWEET PEA corsages, furnished by the newly organized ARCHCLIFF CAMPUS FLORISTS, were sold by AWS girls, and a GARDENIA corsage was raffled off and won by Culver Wold, Spartan Daily staff member.

JACK RIORDAN, popular varsity baseball team captain, and campus-lite, has deserted local coeds for Mills College girls. No fair, Jack—we heard you were recently dancing at the Del Monte Hotel. Shall I tell who she was? Well—Nadine Marlowe (there!). Incidentally, your pal Walt (F) Hanna doesn't care for local talent either. Did someone say the sun sets in the west near Santa Cruz?

To MARGIE BOTHWELL—It is rumored that you received rrry interesting birthday last week. N'est-ce-pas?

It is heard that Campus was more or less taken by the Organization Dinner evening. I would like to stand that this column is posed to be for sorority news about the campus as these organizations are only ones that attend the and are actively engaged in affairs, and as I can't see everyone on the campus them what they're doing, gest that those who have their social functions lized, please turn the article addressed to me, to the box in the Daily office.

AMONG the round of parties to be held during vacation will be that of SOPHIAN—at Carmel. May say that at JEAN TUTTLE GILL'S home in Redwood where meeting was held last plans were made for the El mal on April 22. They have sen a very elegant spot. Seventeen Mile Drive call Monterey Peninsula Golf and try Club. What a perfect for a spring night follow week-end parties at Carmel Monterey.

Riding club meets today (day) at 12:30. Important.

Up and Down The Sports Rialto WITH DAN O'NEILL

Some more thoughts of a guy who is too lazy to turn out something good but who must fill some white space with black letter.

NOTHING NEW

Still no additional news concerning the football schedule. Two dates remain open and perhaps Santa Clara and U.S.F. can fill the bill, but don't bet on it. The Dons won't play the Spartans on September 23 for some reason and it is doubtful if the Broncos will consent to game for November 24. However, cross your fingers and hope for the best.

My operative, 115B, who sometimes masquerades himself as Frank Bonanno, tells me that Frank Carroll passed up a juicy trip to Denver for the national hoop tournament. Carroll is a member of the Oakland Y.M.I., which team has entered the tourney, but he has decided to concentrate more on his finals than on basket shooting.

GIL AND HUB

Gilbert Bishop and Wilbur Hubbard, two gentlemen of whom you may have heard, are still in the California State Badminton tournament now in progress on Treasure Island. The pair won their matches Wednesday and will again compete tomorrow afternoon. Bishop is slated to meet the Canadian champ in his next match.

TAKE A LETTER

To "Buddy" Leitch: Please don't pick on my pal Swenson. He doesn't like to see the Broncos monopolizing everything, although you and I will admit that California can kick the pants off the Mission boys six days out of the week when it comes to playing basketball. Or will you?

THANKS DUD

To Dud DeGroot: Thanks for giving the sports department a ring last week about the time the Warner story was released. Reports to the contrary, we had a representative on the spot when the news broke. Hi ya, Keith!

San Jose State will be represented in the boxing events by Pete Bolich, Ed. Crotser, Jim Kincaid, and Don Presley. Playing in the badminton tournament are Martin Olivari, John Holtorf, Bob Berry, and James Fairley.

TUMBLERS PERFORM

On the tumbling team are Bevo O'Conner, Richard Kong, George Devins, Leroy Lawrence, Jim Fahn, and Jack Finnegan. Gene Grattan has entered Con Lacy, Freddie Albright, Jack Fiebig, Mel Bruno, and Sam Della Maggiore in the wrestling competition.

According to Dee Portal, San Jose will not be represented by a fencing team. Santa Barbara and San Diego will both bring full teams in this event.

Mermen Nip San Francisco State Grapplers Compete In Sports Carnival

Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Championships Set For March 17 At U.C.L.A.

Eugene Grattan's San Jose State college wrestlers are going to face some tough competition over the next couple of week-ends.

On Saturday night at the Winter Sports Carnival in Spartan Pavilion, the Grattan-grapplers will face teams from each of the other State colleges competing, San Diego, Santa Barbara, and Fresno.

On the following week-end, the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate wrestling championships will be held at UCLA on the evening of March 17. California has won the team championship of this tournament for the past 10 years, but the Spartans are conceded an excellent chance of upsetting the Golden Bears.

A.A.U. TOURNEY

During the spring vacation, on March 23, 24, and 25, the Spartans will compete in the biggest tournament of them all, the National AAU wrestling tournament to be held on Treasure Island.

Little hope of the Spartans winning this tournament is held, for entries of the strongest teams from all over the United States are pouring in, according to Grattan.

SPARTAN HOPES

Mel Bruno, and Fortune Masdeo, newly-crowned Far Western wrestling champions, are both conceded excellent chances of placing in the tournament. Bruno was the National AAU champion in 1937.

For the Sports Carnival Saturday night, entries have been received in every division except the 165 and 175 pound classes. According to Grattan, entries in these divisions are expected from Santa Barbara and Fresno who have not yet submitted their entries.

Baseball Games Postponed

The varsity and freshman baseball games scheduled for this week, have been postponed until later in the season, according to an announcement made by Gil Bishop yesterday.

TWO GAMES

Walt McPherson's varsity nine was to meet the University of San Francisco yesterday, but bad conditions on the field forced cancellation of the contest. The game with California Aggies, scheduled for Saturday on the Spartan Field has also been called off due to rain.

The freshman contingent will remain idle over the week-end as their games with Albany high school and Salinas junior college have been called off.

BRONCS AGAIN

Both teams will take up practice duties again on Monday. The varsity prepares to meet Santa Clara on Tuesday and will leave on their tour at the end of the week.

San Jose State's varsity swimmers won their first dual meet of the season last night in the Spartan pool when they barely nosed out San Francisco State by a score of 38 to 37. As was expected beforehand, the bay city team was composed of outstanding first-placers; but San Jose made up for it in seconds and thirds.

A summary of the results follows:

Tennis Season Opens Here Tomorrow

It may rain tomorrow and it may not. Should the weather be of the pleasing variety, Erwin Blesh's tennis cohorts will open their conference season against San Francisco State on the San Jose club courts.

Should rain cancel the tiff, Blesh announced that it will be played next quarter. A possibility that the matches would be held in an indoor court in San Francisco was eliminated yesterday when the northern team seemed not to favor the plan.

The usual six singles and three doubles matches will be played. Blesh plans to insert the same men who so successfully thrashed College of Pacific last week. The opening match is scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock.
